

Ralph Smith Webb

Ralph Smith Webb, age 85, died January 28, 1993 at his home in South Jordan.

He was born January 7, 1908, a son of Eugene and Ann Elizabeth Smith Webb. He married Mildred Whipple on June 30, 1932 in the Salt Lake Temple. She preceded him in death May 7, 1987.

Our father, friend, and loyal supporter grew up in Lehi, Utah. He served in the North Central States Mission, headquartered in Minneapolis, Minnesota. After a successful mission he married his childhood sweetheart, Mildred Whipple of Lehi. After college in Minnesota, he and his family lived in Idaho Falls, Idaho. They later moved to Provo, Utah where they lived for 39 years.

Ralph was a Scoutmaster for ten successful and happy years. During that time 57 young men received their Eagle Scout Badge. Ralph was an Eagle Scout, belonged to the Order of the Arrow, and had received the Provo Peak Award and the Scouter's Key. He loved scouting and that love was returned by all the boys whose lives he touched. He held many leadership positions in the LDS Church. He was a happy, generous man who loved to sing and enjoy his family.

He is survived by two sons and two daughters: Ralph Dan Webb, Blanding, Utah; Suzanne W. McCoy, Fremont, California; Miriam W. Clegg, Orem, Utah; William Henry Webb, South Jordan, Utah; 29 grandchildren; 45 great-grandchildren; three brothers and one sister: Zada Phillips and Karl Webb, Lehi, Utah; Russell Webb and Dean Webb, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Funeral services will be held Monday, February 1, 1993 at 11 a.m. in the Park Ward Chapel, 101 W. 800 North, Provo. Friends may call at Berg Mortuary Provo, 185 E. Center Street, Sunday evening 6 to 8 p.m. and Monday one hour prior to services at the church. Interment, Lehi City Cemetery.
